

The feedback template for the vulnerability report

Please fill in the relevant information about the vulnerability.

A) the product or service name, the URL, or the affected version information;
B) operating system of related components;
C) Version information;
D) a technical description of the actions and results in as much detail as possible;
E) Example code for testing or demonstrating a vulnerability;
F) The contact information of the reporter;
G) Other relevant parties;
H) Disclosure plan;
I) Details of the threat / risk assessment of the identified threats and / or risks, including the risk level of the assessment results (high, medium and low);
J) the software configuration or device configuration of the computer when the vulnerability is discovered;

K) information about connected components and devices (if a vulnerability occurs during the interaction). These details should be provided when an auxiliary component or device triggers a vulnerability;
L) Time and date of discovery;
M) Browser information, including type and version information.